DEPARTMENT OF
LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE
UNIVERSITY OF KERALA
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

NATIONAL SEMINAR
ON
SCHOLARLY PRODUCTIVITY MEASURES

ABOUT DEPARTMENT

The Department of Library and Information Science, which started in 1961 on the initiative of the then University Librarian Professor K.A. Isaac, is the premier school of librarianship and information science in Kerala and one of the early teaching and research departments of the University of Kerala. Located in the Kerala University Library Buildings, presently the department offers M.L.I.Sc., M Phil. and from 1982-83 department has been enrolling scholars for PhD. The Silver Jubilee of the department was celebrated in 1986. A peer-reviewed journal, The Journal of Information Science & Technology, is also published by the department.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

Understanding the strengths and weaknesses of different publication metrics and deciding where to publish your research is crucial in today's competitive academic environment. Publishing papers in quality journals is the best way to disseminate your work and increase your research exposure. In the seminar, the invited resource persons cover peer review of journal publications, Altmetrics, INFLIBNET IRINS initiative, UGC carelist issues, Indian Citation Index, open access and the reference management software Mendeley.

The seminar also discusses quantifying quality of research output in the context of NAAC and NIRF; NIRF parameters, weightages and calculation of weighted score for ranking; research impact metrics – article level, author level, journal level, institutional level (publications, citations, impact factor, SJR, cite Score, h-Index, i10 Index, etc.); research profile reporting (Individual/Institutional); Bird's eye view and analysis of publications, citations and h-Index of Kerala University.
