ORDER

Guideline 3 of U.O read as paper (1) above clarifies that “gracemarks can be given for all the papers/parts/subjects of both annual and semester courses in a year. For semester courses the percentage shall be based on the total maximum marks of either of the two semesters. The total available gracemarks can be distributed for both semesters in a year”

Vide paper read as (2) above the guideline (3) of the U.O dated 07.09.2007 has been modified to read as “gracemarks can be given for all the papers/parts/subjects of both annual and semester courses in a year. For semester courses the percentage shall be based on the total maximum marks of the two semesters. The total available gracemarks can be distributed for both semesters in a year”

Vide paper read as (3) above the implementation of the U.O dated 01.02.2010 was kept in abeyance until all the issues relating to the same are examined afresh and appropriate recommendation are made.The University orders of other universities were examined and it was observed that this university is awarding gracemarks in a very lenient manner.But it was also strongly opined that no compromise can be made in the quality of education by awarding double rate of gracemarks to professional students.

The above matter was placed before the standing committee on examinations and vide paper read as (4) above it was recommended to cancel the order dated 01.02.2010 and also to retain guideline 3 of U.O dated 07.09.2007.The Syndicate vide paper read as (5) above approved the above recommendation.

Sanction has therefore been accorded by the Vice- Chancellor to cancel U.O dated 01.02.2010 and also to retain guideline 3 of U.O dated 07.09.2007.

Orders are issued accordingly
