RULES FOR THE AWARD OF UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS TO M.Phil. COURSES

(Revised as per the decision of the Meeting of the Syndicate held on 29/03/2012)

1. Objective:

The object of the award of Scholarships is to provide some financial assistance to financially backward students undergoing the M.Phil. course in the University Departments under various faculties.

2. Value:

The value of the scholarship is Rs.750/- (Rupees Seven hundred and Fifty only) per month for the period of tenure of the prescribed course of study.

3. Eligibility

The forty University Scholarships of the value of Rs.750/- (Rupees Seven hundred and Fifty only) per mensem may be awarded to the M.Phil. students who belong to the lowest income group (students with an annual income upto Rs.42,000/-) as per the income certificate issued by the Competent Revenue Authorities (provided they do not enjoy the benefit of fee concessions).

4. Number

There will be Forty (40) Scholarships. If there are more than forty (40) students who come under the same income limit, all of them may be awarded the Scholarship of Rs.750/- each per mensem.

5. Conditions of Award

- (1) The Scholarship will be awarded by the University to the candidates who are eligible for the award.
- (2) This Scholarship will not be allotted faculty-wise. Instead it should be given to the 40 M.Phil. students who belong to the lowest income group irrespective of the faculties.

- (3) Tenure: The Scholarship shall be tenable for one year only and only available to those who undergo the M.Phil. course in the University Departments.
- (4) A fellow under this Scholarship scheme should complete the full period of course of study for which the scholarship is awarded.
- (5) Any student who produces false income certificate will be severely dealt with and are liable for academic punishment besides resorting to Criminal Proceedings against them as per existing rules.
- (6) A fellow who is in receipt of any emoluments, scholarships or stipend from any other source will not be entitled to a scholarship under this scheme, unless the emoluments, scholarships or stipend are surrendered by the student before he/she accepts the University scholarship.
- (7) The Scholarship will be liable for suspension or cancellation at any time on account of misconduct or unsatisfactory progress of the student.
- (8) If a student due to one reason or other is not in a position to complete the full period of scholarship he/she should send his application for release from the scholarship sufficiently in advance (atleast 15 days before the actual relinquishment) and obtain the approval of the University before relinquishing the award of scholarship.
- (9) If a student discontinues his/her studies for which the scholarship is awarded, before the expiry of the tenure of course, without the approval of the University (as per Rule 8) the amount drawn upto the date of relinquishment will have to be refunded by the student.
- (10) A student selected for the award of scholarship shall not join any other course of study in the University or other bodies except with the approval of the University.
- (11) Mode of Payment:

The scholarship will be paid in monthly instalments. The Head of the Department concerned will draw the scholarship amount and disburse the same to the awardees every month.

- (12) The Head of Department should send monthly progress report of the Scholar along with the Scholarship bill.
