UNIVERSITY OF KERALA AND DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

University of Kerala was established in 1937 by a promulgation of the Maharaja of Travancore, Sri. Chithira Thirunal Balarama Varma, the first Chancellor of the University. Kerala University is the mother University in Kerala and the Department of Psychology is one the prestigious departments functioning from 1957 under the faculty of Science. The Department has offered M.Sc. M.Phil. and Ph.D. Psychology Programmes .

RELEVANCE OF THE PROGRAMME

India is facing acute shortage of forensic psychologists and only a very few institutions are offering training in this area. The trained Psychologists in India are less than the actual needs. In this context, it is very essential to conduct programs focusing on skill development for better quality management of psychological problems relating to legal issues with the assistance of well known experts from reputed institutions who will share their scientific psychological approaches to civil and criminal justice administration. Apart from the theoretical knowledge latest practical knowledge will be imparted to the participants.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME

- To provide hands on training in various aspects of Forensic Psychology
- To introduce current Psychological techniques available in the fields
- To learn various related tools and their applications.
- To apply conceptual framework to forensic cases
- To move ahead from partial to better practice in Forensic Psychology.

Expected Outcomes : This programme will benefit in understanding the key concepts of Forensic Psychology and will especially benefit the psychologists who in future would be working in the field of Criminal law. It is an opportunity to acquire effective techniques for bridging clinical and behavioral data with actual situation.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- Criminal profiling
- Demonstration of crime scene profiling
- Hand writing and signature examination
- Interview and interrogation techniques
- Modern methods of Forensic Psychology Investigation
- Other evidence based therapies
- Polygraph, Brain mapping & Narcoanalysis
- Psychological Autopsy
- Psychological evaluation of Eye-witness Testimony
- Reconstructive Mental State Evaluation (RMSE)
- Sexual assault victim coping
- Suspect Detection System
- Victim participation in criminal justice

Eminent speakers from reputed national institutions will deliver the sessions.

TARGET GROUPS

The programme would target faculty, mental health and medico-legal professionals, investigating and judicial officers, forensic scientists, research scholars and postgraduate students working in this field.
